To Whom It May Concern:

Century Tools and Machinery Ltd. is pleased to announce the opening of its branch office in Newmarket Ontario. Newmarket is a thriving business and manufacturing community within York Region and Century Tools is pleased to be a part of that diverse and competitive market. Serving the Canadian industrial market since 1981, Century Tools boasts a long tradition of family values. When looking to expand our business it was clear that Newmarket's business culture and its plans to grow in the future offered us the greatest opportunity.

Please visit us at www.centurytools.com or at our Mississauga or Newmarket offices. Our knowledgeable staff are ready to assist you with all of your industrial requirements.

Best Regards,

Steve Watson
